

Staff Announcement

New Executive Assistant to the Director of Education

On behalf of the Northwest Catholic District School Board, I am pleased to announce the hiring of Shauna Hammond to the position of Executive Assistant to the Director of Education.

Mrs. Hammond has extensive experience working in the education field as she brings with her more than 20 years of experience to her current role. She is currently the Head Secretary at Fort Frances High School where she manages the main office and supports school staff.

Shauna's exemplary communication, decision-making, and organizational skills are but a few of her many strengths. She is a solid and very dependable team member who thrives and excels when working with people.

Shauna is excited to begin this new role and looks forward to working with all members of our Board.

Staff and Trustees extend best wishes to Shauna in her new role.

God Bless,

Brendan Hyatt
Director of Education.
